ANOTHER ARREST.

A Clerk in the Office of the Auditor For the District of Columbia.

IS CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

The Amount of Government Funds Gone is Estimated at Between $60,000 and $75,000.

He is Held in $25,000 Bond—Accused Attributes the Alleged Shortage to Careless Bookkeeping and Denies Embezzlement.

Washington, June 10.—James M. Watson, Jr., a clerk in the office of the auditor for the District of Columbia and the son-in-law of a wealthy retired railroad contractor, was arrested Tuesday on a charge of embezzlement of government funds. The amount is estimated at from $60,000 to $75,000. The warrant makes the specific charge of embezzlement of $8,000, which represents only a portion of the alleged peculations. Watson was not bonded and in case he or his relatives, several of whom are said to be wealthy, fail to make good the alleged losses, Auditor J. T. Petty will be held responsible for the amount. The auditor's bonds is for $20,000. The money alleged to have been embezzled was part of the funds deposited in the office of the auditor by property owners who are willing to pay half or all costs of improvements abutting on their property, such as paving sidewalks, alleys and streets.

This embraces deposits by railway companies, electric light companies, telephone companies, for crossing sidewalks, for sewers and water mains, and is entirely separate from the other accounts. This account is not subject to review by the treasury department, but it is checked by the clerk in charge of the corresponding account in the district department and he reported it correct as late as February, 1902.

The depositors, it is said, have the right to recover from the district through suit. The auditor's office is under the supervision of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia. Auditor Petty has complete charge of the assessment and permit fund, depositing the money in a bank to his own credit. Mr. Watson, it is alleged, has been entrusted with making the deposits and has returned the pass book in apparently proper condition in each instance. He has been an employee of the district for four years and the alleged defalcations are supposed to have occurred throughout most of this period.

Watson's bail was fixed at $25,000, which it was stated will be furnished Wednesday by several bonding companies with which arrangements to that effect will be made. The arrested man spent the night in a police station. In a long statement which he made to a reporter Watson attributed the alleged shortage to careless bookkeeping and denied that he had been guilty of any embezzlement.

TROOPS ASKED FOR.

They Are to Guard Prisoners When Taken From the Covington Jail.

Lexington, Ky., June 10.—Sheriff James Robinson, of Mason county, has asked Gov. Beckham for troops to guard three Negro prisoners—Charles Saunders, Tom Mann and Ed Morris—who are charged with the attempted murder of John Farrow near Mt. Gilead, on February 1 last. Their faces hidden with masks, it is charged, that they held him up at his home, robbed him, afterward assaulting and nearly killing him. The men escaped, but bloodhounds were put on their tracks and they were captured the next day. The people of Mt. Carmel and Mt. Gilead planned to lynch the Negroes, and considerable excitement prevailed at the time, but the plan was frustrated by Sheriff Robinson, who smuggled the Negroes to Covington for safe keeping, and they have been confined in jail at that place since. Their trial will be called Thursday in the Mason county circuit court, and this will necessitate the return of the prisoners to Mason county. Owing to the existence of a strong feeling against them even at this time the sheriff feels that troops will be necessary to guard them, and he made his request accordingly.

It could not be learned Tuesday night whether Gov. Beckham had granted the request.

Gov. Hunt Will Not Resign.

San Juan, P. R., June 10.—Gov. Hunt and his family sailed for New York Tuesday. The governor said there was no truth in the report that he intended to resign and added that he would return in September.

THE COMING FAIR.

Elks Solicit Subscriptions and Hope the Response Will be General and Generous.

The committee appointed to ask the merchants, manufacturers, men of profession, and in fact all citizens who have the welfare of our thriving little city at heart to assist to give the fair this fall (Aug. 19th-22nd) are out this week to call on all for their subscriptions. It is to be hoped that the response will be general and generous.

If it was generally understood that the Elks individually desire no benefit, that they work hard and incessantly, put in their time and money, and that their object in giving the fair is for mutual benefit, there would be no difficulty in raising quite a large sum to make the undertaking a decided success.

Being aware of the fact that the merchants of our city have been greatly handicapped in their spring's business by causes too well known to mention, we believe that in giving this fair their losses can be offset and through its medium bring the people to Mayesville which will greatly enhance the merchants' business and bring up the average for the year.

Any one who should happen to be overlooked by the committee, and who feels it his or her duty to help a good cause, can leave their names and amount of their subscription with any of the undersigned and it will be received and recorded with thanks. Yours for Mayesville,

Civilization That Doesn't Civilize.

[Exchange.]

We just hate to come across a man, or, worse yet, a community which is on the hog to that extent that it will take no interest in any matter of public improvement unless it brings dollars into its pockets. Even the Sioux Indian would decorate his tepee, nearly all birds will use art and refinement in the building of the nest, while thousands of so-called civilized human beings will care as little for their home surroundings as a fox in his den. We have altogether too much civilization which does not civilize.

President Burrus A. Jenkins, of Kentucky University, has received a letter from George M. D. Posey, of Indianapolis, saying he would attend the University next season and try for the degree of A. B., after which he is going to Harvard to take the course in law. Three years ago young Posey, at the age of sixteen, was barely able to read and write, but his ambition was aroused to obtain an education and he started in to attend the public schools, and is now ready to enter college with a good preparation in all the studies, including Latin and Greek.

THE JURY SECURED

Twelve Men to Decide the Fate of Jett and White Under the Charge of the Elizor.

AN EXTRA GUARD DURING TRIAL.

Jurors Have Not Read Newspaper Accounts of the Tragedy and Knew No Details of It.

An Attempt Was Made to Hold Up Elizor Jones While Hunting For Jurors in Magoffin County Monday Night.

Jackson, Ky., June 10.—The jury to try Curtis Jett and Tom White, charged with one of the foulest assassinations in the history of bloody Breathitt, the shooting of J. B. Marcum in the back as he stood in the courthouse door, was completed shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday night. The 12 men placed under the charge of the elizor and his deputies and will be sworn, and the opening statements made Wednesday morning. Present indications are that the testimony will be commenced before noon. The jury are all Magoffin county farmers who said they had not read newspaper accounts of the tragedy and knew no details of it. They were accepted after an afternoon and evening of arguments, challenges and the filing of numerous affidavits. Their names are: Burns Fitzpatrick, James Allen, Dick Miller, Levi Hacker, R. May, Will Reid, Jasper Wallen, Estill Reid, N. B. Salyer, James Bondy, Ham Prather and J. H. Rudd.

Both sides seem satisfied with the body. The defense exhausted its 15 peremptory challenges and the prosecution used three of its five. The extra veniremen did not arrive from Magoffin county until 3 o'clock. They were secured after strenuous efforts on the part of the elizor, who rode all night through the hills. Shortly before midnight he was held up in a wild portion of the country, a man springing from behind a tree and seizing his bridle. Jones fired full in the parties' face. He said the man reeled and then made off through the bushes.

Among the affidavits filed Tuesday afternoon was one by S. H. C. Hurst, in which he alleged that money was offered men in Magoffin county if they could get to be veniremen. Hurst alleges that one S. H. G. Arnett told one man that he could get $100 and another $40 if they could become members of the special venire. It has before been alleged that a powerful faction, which by some is accredited with keeping a large number of men on its payroll for service somewhat similar to the militiamen, had agents in the counties bordering Breathitt. The man cited in the affidavit referred to was excused by Judge Redwine.

In an affidavit, the defense alleged that S. E. L. Noble, an absent witness, would testify that from his position Jett could not have fired the shot which killed Marcum. On ground of his absence, the defense asked postponement, but the prosecution admitted that if present, Noble would so testify and the preliminaries proceeded.

The names of all veniremen were written on slips of paper, placed in a box, shaken and the slips were then drawn, one at a time, by the judge. Ninety per cent. had not read newspaper accounts of the killing of Marcum, and the rigid examination was directed as to their kinship to and relations with people in Breathitt county, of their friends or relatives in Magoffin county. In some instances what to the casual observer seemed no harm, meant a great disqualification to some whose knowledge of feuds enabled them to trace a friendship or a kinship through several families to one or the other factions in Breathitt, or, possibly, go back several generations and find a tie that might have a bearing on the present state of affairs in Jackson. An extra guard will attend Jett and White during the trial.

STRANGE LIGHTNING FREAK.

The Tacks in the Shoe of Mrs. Morris Were Melted.

Owensboro, Ky., June 10.—Mrs. J. R. Morris was struck by lightning while standing by a stove. The hair on the left side of her head was singed off, and a black stripe extended down her body to her feet. She was unconscious for two hours, but will recover. The tacks in her shoes were melted, a hole was burned in the floor, and some chickens under the house were killed.

Wants $25,000 Damages.

Greenup, Ky., June 10.—Samuel Rose has filed suit in the Boyd county court against the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad for $25,000 damages, for the death of his son, Joseph Rose, who was killed near Russell last March.

HERE AND THERE.

Items of Interest From Nearby Towns and Villages Contributed by the Bulletin's Corps of Correspondents.

EAST LIMESTONE, June 9th.—Mrs. John Brodt and daughters, Misses Lottie and Luella, are visiting relatives in Cincinnati.

Miss Jessie Yancey left on the early train this morning for Lexington where she will take an educational course preparatory to teaching this fall. Her absence is extremely regretted, as her zealous and untiring efforts in the Sunday school will be missed.

Mrs. Rev. Robert Tolle was taken suddenly ill Sunday eve at the home of Mrs. Mattie Tolle, of whom she and little son Rucker are guests. Dr. Lord was called and the patient is resting easier.

Mrs. Erskine, near Orangeburg, who is suffering with mental derangement from the effects of religious excitement, will be taken to Lexington this week to receive treatment.

The home of Thomas Williams, a typhoid fever convalescent, at the head of Sleepy Hollow Creek, was flooded Friday evening by the storm. Mr. Williams was removed to the home of his father where the family also took refuge. The receding waters left the floor covered with mud.

Bud Sweet had the misfortune to lose another cow last week, the second in the past month or so.

John Sherman had a new covered wagon, with harness, washed away in the flood, which he had hurriedly escaped with his horse. He estimates his loss at $50.

Rev. Musselman preached at Stone Lick Sunday afternoon and will continue to preach each afternoon of the first and third Sundays.

Lightning during the electric storm struck the burnt chimneys on the Powers farm, felling them to the ground, also a large oak tree on the Hickey farm, stripping almost the entire bark from its surface, and in about fifty feet from an elm that was struck by lightning the past season and which stood in four or five feet of the barn.

The cloud-burst that occurred in this vicinity Friday evening was unparalleled, the like never experienced by the oldest inhabitant. It wrought great destruction. The heavy dark cloud that appeared in the west, moving eastward, circled around the city, then turned south, coming in contact with an approaching cloud, producing a veritable downpour, accompanied by violent and terrific lightning and thunder. The rain, which is supposed to have not extended over an area of more than two miles in width, began falling at 4 o'clock p. m. and continued in an unceasing downpour about thirty minutes, and those that had never witnessed a drama of the memorable Galveston flood could not fail to note a comparison. Devastation was everywhere perceptible. Fields of corn, tobacco and tobacco beds and vegetation were destroyed, and in many instances the ground is entirely divested of loose soil. Fences and water gaps were swept away, leaving crops exposed and in the commons, with rock the only available article of fencing, as outlet to the city from some of the farms is cut off. An empty fifteen gallon kettle at the home of Mr. Sloupe lacked four inches of being full when the rain subsided, giving some idea as to the amount of water that fell in the short period of time. Kennedy's Creek was a raging torrent, sweeping everything before it in its swollen and violent fury, submerging walls that had withstood the floods of fifty years and perhaps longer, and causing a vast amount of destruction along its course. It is claimed that the crest of the flood was ten feet high, while nearer the terminus of the creek it was augmented to fifteen feet. Some families were terribly frightened and escaped from their houses. The intervening county road sustained great damage, the bridge and culverts washed away and the portion of the road that yet remained in the creek is destroyed beyond redemption. Citizens are entirely cut off from travel, awaiting the action of Judge Newell, who has assured the overseer of the road of his attention to a betterment of their deplorable condition.

JOHN WILKES BOOTH.

A Kentucky Man Offers Evidence Against the Story That Another Body Was Buried For His.

[Courier-Journal.]

FLEMINGSBURG, Ky., June 3.—I have in my possession a lock of hair cut from the head of John Wilkes Booth after he was slain at Garrett's barn, in Caroline County, Va. It is as black as a "raven's wing." This hair was given me by the Rev. R. B. Garrett, whose mother clipped it from the head of Wilkes Booth. Dr. Garrett is now filling the pulpit of a Portsmouth (Va) Baptist Church. This clearly disproves the statement of Pallbearer Moxley, who claims in your issue of this date, that the man buried for Booth had "reddish brown hair." Dr. Garrett saw Booth die beyond question, and the statement to the effect that he was alive till February last is all moonshine. Yours truly,

JOHN W. HEFLIN.

Looking Forward.

Could we look down the corridors of time for a period of ten years after the building of the traction line to Mayesville and behold the changes wrought by that magnificent enterprise, we believe our people would scarcely eat or sleep until work was begun on the road.

IS RISING RAPIDLY.

Mississippi, After Receding, Established Highest Water Mark Ever Recorded in St. Louis.

IT REACHED STAGE OF 37.75 FEET

It is Estimated That 4,000 People Are Living in Flooded Houses in the Three Towns.

A Supply Boat Has Been Outfitted and Will Make Daily Trips to Venice, Madison and Granite City to Relieve Suffering.

St. Louis, June 10.—The Mississippi flood which Monday night began to recede after reaching a stage of 37.5 feet, began a rapid rise Tuesday and reached a stage of 37.75 feet, establishing the highest official water mark ever recorded in St. Louis. The rise was rapid after the dawn of day, the water creeping up from 37.1 feet, where the recession during the latter part of the night had placed the stage, steadily regaining lost ground and increasing until at noon the stage had reached 37.75 feet and from that time until 8 o'clock the river remained stationary. What has caused the rise is problematical. Government Forecaster Bowie advances as an explanation that the water that has spread out through broken levees to the north is being drawn back into the channel by the receding water and has caused a temporary rise at this point. He says the rise will be of short duration and the decline consequently will be rapid.

It is estimated that 8,000 refugees have found shelter in St. Louis and vicinity. People remaining in their flooded houses in the inundated districts are being furnished with food as rapidly as possible. It is estimated that 4,000 people are still living in flooded homes in Granite City, Venice and Madison. A supply boat has been outfitted and will daily make trips to relieve suffering.

The flood situation in East St. Louis is still critical. The additional rise of Tuesday caused efforts to further raise the levees to be hurriedly resumed and all business was again abandoned Tuesday and the majority of the citizens aided in keeping the water out of the city.

The viaduct leading from East St. Louis to Eads bridge was ordered closed, as the water has, it is believed, weakened the abutments and rendered the bridge dangerous. The viaduct is the only present connection between East St. Louis and St. Louis.

RAILWAY EMBANKMENT BROKE.

The Entire Lower Portion of East St. Louis is Flooded.

St. Louis, June 10.—Shortly after midnight the Illinois Central embankment at the Valley railroad crossing in East St. Louis was washed through and the entire lower portion of East St. Louis was flooded. About 5,000 homes were deluged.

Word was received here Wednesday morning that the water is rushing into East St. Louis from the south side in a torrent and people are fleeing for their lives. The heavy pressure that tore away the Illinois Central embankments swept other barriers aside and flowed on in a torrent into the southern portion of the city. The business portion of the city is from 2 to 6 feet below the flood level and if the water pours through the streets the property loss will be heavy and many lives probably will be lost.

FOUR PERSONS DROWNED.

Three Boys and a Man Lose Their Lives Near New Kensington, Pa.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 10.—Four persons were drowned in the Allegheny river a short distance below New Kensington Tuesday evening. The three boys who were drowned got into a boat and started to float down the river. With them were four other youths about their own age. After floating half a mile down the river the current became swifter and the boys were unable to control the boat. The three boys who were drowned became frightened and jumped into the water. In a moment they sank from sight. The four boys in the boat called for help and a camping party on an island hastened to the rescue. Albert Lusk, aged 30, was dragged over board by his grappling hook and drowned before his companions could reach him.

Frankfort, Ky., June 10.—The state board of equalization raised the assessment in the following counties: Mason, 4 per cent. on lands, 2 per cent. on town lots; Nicholas, 7 per cent. on lands; Bracken, 5 per cent. on lands and 2 per cent. on town lots; Fleming, 2 per cent. on lands.

ABUSE OF PARDONING POWER.

The Public Ledger is having a good deal to say at present about the pardons granted by Gov. Beckham to Breathitt County criminals. The BULLETIN has condemned for years the abuse of the pardoning power by Kentucky's Chief Executives, but we recognize the fact that they are not always the only officials at fault. The Ledger should give facts, but it is so bent on making a little political capital that it will hardly do so.

On this subject a special from Frankfort says:

Much has been made of the pardon of Goodloe Hudson and J. E. Fugate, in February last. In these cases the records show one of the strongest petitions ever presented to Gov. Beckham for pardon. Certainly it compares more favorably with the records of pardons granted during the administration of Gov. Bradley, which preceded the present one.

When Gov. Beckham came into office he determined that applications should be indorsed by the officials of the court, juryman and others conversant with the circumstances surrounding the commission of the offense. He has been adhering to this rule throughout, and especially in cases where the offense is serious or where human life has been taken. In granting the pardons in the Hudson and Fugate cases, which are at present being discussed, the Governor wrote the following indorsement on the petition presented:

"The pardon of these boys is asked for by the Circuit Judge, the Commonwealth's Attorney, the County Attorney, other counsel employed by the prosecution, by the jury and by a large number of officials and good citizens of Breathitt County. Their statements within justify a pardon. It seems remarkable from the statements made by all of the trial jury that they ever convicted the defendants. A strong case of self-defense is made out and it appears that the deceased was a desperado, who had threatened the lives of these boys, and at the time he was killed he was trying to kill them. It is also shown by numerous affidavits filed herein that a large number of names signed to the protest are forgeries, and the men whose names are signed join in the petition for a pardon. A careful examination of the case, therefore, leads me to the conclusion that the pardon is deserved. Granted."

A close inspection of the papers made, shows that the present Circuit Judge, Commonwealth's Attorney, County Attorney, all twelve of the jury, and nearly 100 others, including the County Judge and Circuit Clerk of Knott County, where Fugate lived, urged the granting of the pardon in these cases. In addition there are on file the affidavits of a number of citizens of Breathitt County to the effect that a remonstrance against the pardon, which is yet a part of the record, is a forgery so far as their names are signed to it.

As stated in the foregoing this pardon compares most favorably with those granted during the Bradley administration. One pardon in point is that granted by Gov. Bradley in a Breathitt County case, that of Jerry Cardwell, convicted in the Clark Circuit Court of manslaughter in the killing of John G. Hargis, a brother of the present County Judge of Breathitt County. Cardwell was sentenced to the penitentiary, and was pardoned before he could be brought here. In granting the pardon Gov. Bradley in substance wrote the following indorsement on the petition, which may be compared with that of Gov. Beckham in the case about which he is being criticised by the Republican press:

"Six of the jury that convicted the defendant * * * nearly if not all the county officials of Clark County recommend a pardon and express astonishment at the verdict. Besides a petition numerously signed by citizens of Clark County asks for his pardon. The testimony is conflicting, but, I think, demonstrates that deceased was under the influence of liquor, armed with two pistols, one of which he had in his hands in the passenger coach, which the conductor took from him; that he was not conducting himself in an orderly manner, and at the time he was killed was in the act of firing either upon defendant or the conductor. A pardon is granted."

River News.

Preparations are well under way for the shipment of the greatest amount of coal out of the Monongahela river in the history of the coal business of Pittsburgh. It is estimated that the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company has about 25,000,000 bushels loaded and waiting for the necessary water. Towboats are hitched to many tows, and every preparation has been made for the expected rise.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company has purchased the Anchor Line wharfbat at Pittsburgh and freight will be received in a few days for barge shipment to Cincinnati, Louisville, Memphis, Vicksburg and New Orleans. Captain John Moren, who has charge of the freight department, expects to develop a heavy business in this trade, as there are no through packets from Pittsburgh to New Orleans. The company for some time has been carrying considerable freight in barges from New Orleans. This is a departure, but will be made a fixed department of the company.

Moses Johnson, a Ripley negro, landed in Maysville Monday and tried to take Market street. Not receiving a telegram he was expecting, he got mad, at the Western Union office, but left after making use of some insolent talk. Shortly afterwards he tackled a negro man and pulled his pistol with a threat to do something. The fellow made tracks and about this time Policeman Thompson arrived on the scene and marched Moses around to jail, where a search revealed a pistol, a pair of brass knucks and a pair of scissors stowed away in Johnson's pockets. Judge Whitaker fined him $25 Tuesday and sent him to jail for ten days.

Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets. In a very short time I was cured of backache which had troubled me for some time. I gave some to a friend who suffered greatly from kidney ailments, and he said the results obtained from their use proved that Doan's Kidney Pills are a preparation which possesses remarkable value."

If you will assist us in making our June business equal our month of May you will reap the benefit of buying the best of merchandise at as low if not lower prices than you would pay for goods that are not "in it" with ours. Notwithstanding it was prophesied by other Maysville shoe merchants that we would tire of advertising, "Money back or another pair if the pair you buy of us prove unsatisfactory," we continue and always will sell our Shoes with above guarantee. There are two reasons why we do so. First, we buy the best Shoes in the world and sell them at legitimate prices. Second, we don't want anybody's money without giving value for it. BRILLIANT CLOSE

Of First Year of Miss Fannie I. Gordon's Training School.

A Class of Seven Receive Diplomas—Scholarships Awarded in Four Colleges. Dean Lee's Eloquent Address.

Maysville has never witnessed a more brilliant commencement, one that reflected higher credit upon the institution giving it, than that of Miss Gordon's Training School last evening.

It was the close of the first year of this school, and it certainly presages a bright future. All connected with this new educational institution are to be congratulated, especially Miss Gordon, the accomplished and ever-faithful teacher. Her record in Maysville's schools certainly entitles her to rank among Kentucky's foremost and most successful educators.

An audience that packed the opera house and that was representative of Maysville's best citizens graced the occasion, and was generous with its applause. The stage was tastefully decorated, and there were flowers and gifts in profusion for the graduates. From the opening march and chorus by the pupils to the close the exercises reflected the highest credit upon both pupils and teacher.

The essays and recitations were given with an ease, clearness and ability that marked careful training and patient and laborious study. The exercises were interspersed with selections by the Maysville Orchestra, and a song by the accomplished Miss Wadsworth. The audience were so delighted with her singing that she had to respond to an encore.

Dean Baker P. Lee, the popular Episcopal clergyman of Lexington, delivered the address of the evening. His reputation as an eloquent orator had preceded him. He is a captivating speaker, impressive in his delivery.

The program was as follows:

Invocation.....Dr. Evans
Chorus.....Kern
Orchestra—Selections from "Prince of Pilsen".....Luders
"The End Crowns the Work".....Miss Ellena D. Walsh.
Recitation—The Wedding of the Flowers.....Byers
Miss Lila Whiteman Wood.
Song—Love in Springtime.....Arditt
Miss Wadsworth.
"Our Nation's Triumph".....Master John Windsor Sharp.
Recitation—As the Moon Rose.....Pauline Phelps
Miss Mary Agnes Moran.
Orchestra—"Southern Smiles".....Kelley
Recitation—"Behind the Curtain".....Mrs. Burton Harrison
Miss Sadie Williams Thompson.
"The Wizard of Menlo Park".....Austin Rosenham Quigley.
Orchestra—Selections from "Sultan of Sulu".....Anderson
"The Wise or the Otherwise".....Miss Pattie Darnall Quaintance.
Orchestra—Allegretto.....Holzman
Presentation of Diplomas and Scholarships—Hon. W. H. Wadsworth.
Address to Class—Dean Baker P. Lee.
Miss Perry, accompanist.

In presenting the diplomas Mr. Wadsworth prefaced his remarks with the statement that the exercises of the evening had certainly convinced everyone that Miss Gordon's Training School was up-to-date; that one thing could be said of it that could be said of no other Maysville school, and that was that it is recognized by three of the leading colleges of Kentucky—the State College having granted two scholarships, Kentucky Wesleyan one and Central University one. He afterwards read an announcement that Georgetown College would grant a scholarship next year. One of the State College scholarships is set apart for post-graduate.

Miss Ellena Walsh and Miss Pattie Quaintance were the honor graduates, with a percentage of 95 7-10 and 94 8-10, respectively. Mr. Austin Rosenham Quigley and Miss Sadie Thompson tied for third honor, with a percentage of 93 2-10. Miss Agnes Moran, the post-graduate, had a percentage of over 97 in her studies.

Adjutant General Murray is in town to-day looking over the situation to see whether it is necessary to send State troops here to protect the three negroes in jail at Covington when they are brought back for trial.

ALL KINDS OF

FIRE

With a good Gas Range you can cook your soup over a slow fire, which it needs, and your roast over a quick fire, and both at the same time. How can you do this any other way than with a GAS RANGE?

Gas Ranges At Factory Cost Price!

Never was such another opportunity afforded you to obtain so much value for the same money. During the month of June the Gas Company will, if so desired, make a written agreement with any purchaser of a Gas Range to the effect, that, if on the first day of August, said purchaser shall have become dissatisfied with the use of their Range, either for the reason that it will not do the work as represented, or that it costs too much to operate, then the Gas Company will take back the stove and refund any money paid upon its purchase price. The only thing to prevent you taking advantage of this offer is that the Ranges are sold quicker than they can be connected-up, so if you are thinking of buying one, now is the time to decide. Over twenty installed during May and not a single complaint. For further particulars see the Gas Company and sample Ranges at Langfels & Co.'s.
